Witchcraft

by Jayne Ann Krentz

Read by Lesa Lockford

Is she walking into a trap or into the arms of a man who promises to protect her?

Mystery writer Kimberly Sawyer lives alone and likes it that way. But when she is threatened by a hooded figure, and a blood-red rose with a needle thrust into its heart is left on her doorstep, she knows she needs protection. So it seems like perfect timing when Napa Valley vineyard owner Darius Cavanaugh returns to Kimberly's life, offering help and a place to stay. But how did he know she needed him? Was it the deep, intuitive intimacy of a soulmate...or was it witchcraft?

AUTHOR

Jayne Ann Krentz holds a B.A in History from the University of California, Santa Cruz, and a Masters degree in Library Science from San Jose State University. To help educate the public about the romantic genre she became the editor and a contributor to Dangerous Men and Adventurous Women, a non-fiction essay collection that won the prestigious Susan Koppelman Award for Feminist Studies. She and her husband live in Seattle.
