El lado positivo del fracaso (Failing Forward)

by John C. Maxwell

Read by Rolando De Castro

Learn how to make failure your friend to ensure success.

Are some people born to achieve anything they want while others struggle? New York Times bestselling author John C. Maxwell has the answer: The difference between average people and achieving people is their perception of and response to failure. Most people are never prepared to deal with failure. Maxwell has learned to make failure his friend, and he can teach you to do the same. "I want to help you learn how to confidently look the prospect of failure in the eye and move forward anyway," says Maxwell. "Because in life, the question is not if you will have problems, but how you are going to deal with them. Stop failing backward and start failing forward!"
